

America's army balloon team which sailed recently to compete in the James Gordon Bennett international balloon race at Geneva, Switzerland. Left to right: Lieut. William E. Huffman, Major Oscar Westover, Lieut. F. C. Bond and Lieut. W. E. Connolly. International.

Lady Terrington's group at Princess Mary's costume ball in Royal Albert Hall, London. Left to right, front row, Lady Alexander, Princess Andre of Russia, Mrs. T. P. Seagrave, Mrs. Anthony John, Mrs. Busch, Mrs. John Stubbs. Left to right, rear row Capt. C. Percy-Davis, Prince Andre of Russia, Mr. W. A. H. Craven, Lord Terrington, Major Anthony John, Mr. Carpenter, Capt. John Stubbs. Wide World.

Sailors from the U. S. S. Utah rooting for their team in its match against the London All Stars on Independence Day. Wide World.

Seaman Ryan of the U. S. S. Utah batting in the game between his crew team and the London All Stars, at Stamford Bridge, England. Wide World.

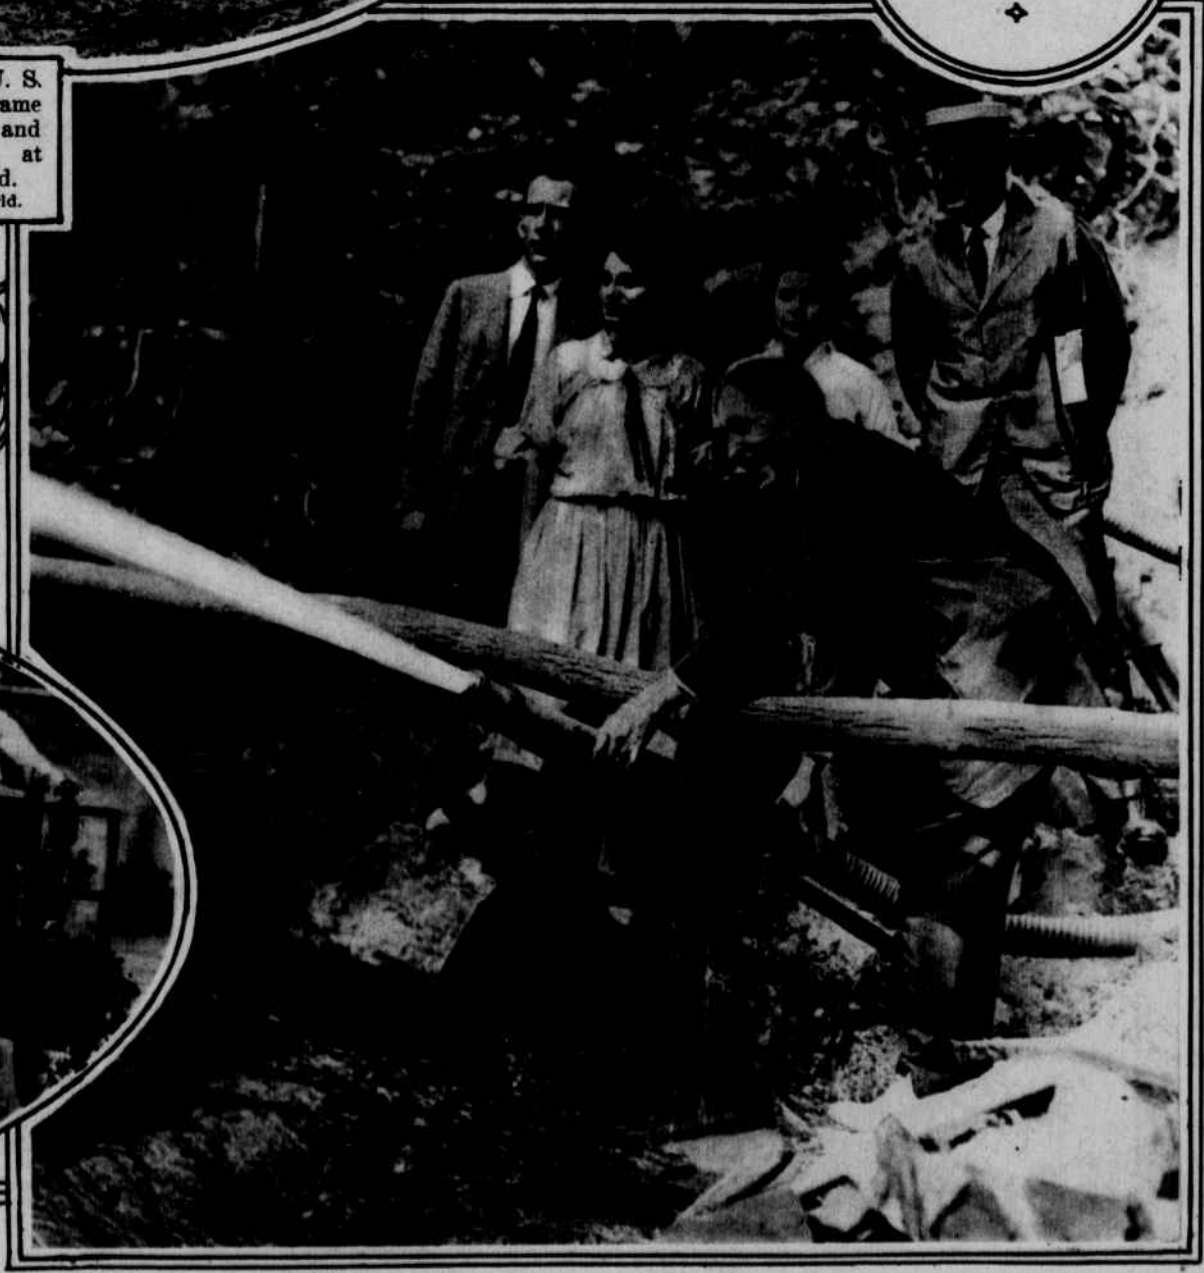

Solicitor General James M. Beck of the U. S. Department of Justice a guest at the Interallied Club in Paris. Photo shows, left to right, Louis Barthou, French Minister of Justice; Mr. Beck and Marshal Foch. International.

Miss Adele Rowland, one of the prominent features of "Spice of 1922" at the Winter Garden.

One of the prize winning displays in the recent carnival at Brighton, England's fashionable watering place. Wide World.

U. S. Senator William H. King of Utah "shooting the gun" at the newly located gold mine just across the Potomac River from the Capitol at Washington, D. C. International.